THE JOM MAKAN COLLECTION

ABOUT THE TEAM

When you are given money, time and most importantly an idea, you act upon it. To be honest, what else could you be doing with it? At the very core of JustWearLah, we're just three university students looking to sprout an idea and nurture it into a reality. Not only do we hope to sell shirts of various designs and concepts, we also hope to be able to create a community of artists and inspire others to give it a shot as well! With a touch of humbleness and unpretentiousness, we really do hope that our dreams can truly become a reality and in turn, inspire others as well.

ABOUT US

RICK TAN

Founder

I'm your elementary and typical introvert that you see in your everyday life. Not exactly the brightest of minds or the most logical person you'll ever see, but just enough to get by with a scratch. I like to engage in sports and occasionally team activities, but mainly I don't do much and often ponder about things over music. Ironically, I handle almost everything there is to do with engaging with others! I mainly handle public relations, inventory control, creative designing and funnily, marketing. If you find anything on our social media pages unsatisfying or generally mediocre, I genuinely would be open to suggestions...hit me up! :)

JORDAN TAY

Founder

I'm just a simple guy with a complex mind. I'm an aspiring guitarist who likes to hit the gym and swim whenever I'm free. I oversee the general management as well as the overall design of the JustWearLah brand so if anything ever looks out of touch — you know who to blame.

JEARN XIU

Founder

I'm an average student who prefers doing hands on work. During my free time, I usually engage in online trading and some exercise. My responsibilities in the business includes handling the accounts and sales of the business. My philosophy in life is that "even if you do not know which direction you would like to go in the future, just move. It's better to have little, incorrect progress than nothing at all."
